HISTORICAL.

At a meeting of several gentlemen, held May 6, 1852, it was resolved to enter upon an effort to sustain public worship at Jamaica Plain, in connection with an Orthodox Congregational ministry. Upon application, the Village Hall was liberally granted them for that purpose by the town authorities; and on May 26th the first sermon was preached by Rev. Thomas Laurie, of West Roxbury. From that time public worship was regularly maintained.

On the 20th of September, of the same year, Mr. Simon J. Humphrey, a recent graduate of Andover Theological Seminary, was engaged to preach six months.

On the 6th of October, a Religious Society was formed, and called the Mather Society; it was not, however, legally organized until September 29, 1853.

The formation of a Church being deemed advisable, on the 15th of February, 1853, a Council, representing ten churches, instituted the Mather Church, with twenty-one members.

After the close of Mr. Humphrey's engagement, the services of Mr. Alonzo H. Quint, a graduate of Andover Theological Seminary in 1852, were engaged, with the agreement for a permanent connection. On the 10th of July, 1853, he commenced his regular work, though the official connection was deferred by mutual consent until on the 27th of December, 1853, he was regularly ordained according to Congregational usages, through a Council which met in the Baptist Church, which was kindly offered for the occasion.

On the 24th of September, 1854, public service was held for the first time in the lecture-room connected with the church edifice, then in process of erection; and on the 2d of January, 1856, the church edifice was dedicated to the public worship of God.

At the opening of the civil war, April, 1861, Mr. Quint was called to the chaplaincy of the Second Regiment, M. V. M. This call neither he nor the Church felt at liberty to disregard; and accordingly leave of absence for three months was granted the pastor that he might engage in this service.

The vote passed on the 24th of June recites that, in view of the case, "we do, although reluctantly, grant the request that has been made, and bid him God-speed in his labors." The period named in this vote was afterwards extended by different votes until the beginning of the year 1863.

By that time the interests of the Church obviously rendered the services of a resident pastor absolutely necessary, while yet no prospect of Mr. Quint's speedy return could be seen.

Moved by these considerations, he offered and the Church accepted a resignation of the pastoral office. Thus the relation which had so long and pleasantly existed was formally terminated on May 12, 1863, twenty-three months after the actual separation.

From this time, the Church remained without a pastor until September 21, 1864. Rev. FRANCIS B. PERKINS was then installed in this office.

In the latter part of 1866 the Central Congregational Society was formed in place of the Mather Society. The Church, therefore, voted, on January 8, 1867, to drop the name by which it had been known, and to assume the title of THE CENTRAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH OF JAMAICA PLAIN.

On the 24th of June, 1870, Mr. Perkins, in consequence of long continued ill health, was compelled to resign the pastoral office, and his resignation was accepted to take effect October 1, 1870, at which time the relation was dissolved.

In April, 1871, the Society sold its house of worship on Center Street, and purchased a lot of land on the corner of Elm Street and Seaverns Avenue, and commenced the erection of a new house, which was completed and dedicated September 5, 1872.

On the 2d of August, 1872, a call was extended to Rev. JOSEPH B. CLARK, and on the 8th of the following October he was installed as pastor, which office he still holds.

At the time of the issue of this Manual, January, 1878, the church is looking forward to the immediate celebration of its TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY. We desire to record our gratitude to God for His favor towards His Church for a quarter of a century; that He has preserved it from fatal divisions; that its numbers have increased from an original membership of twenty-one to an entire membership of 617; that it has out-grown its first house of worship, and has been signally blessed in the erection of its second; and above all, that the Great Head of the Church has remembered it both with the rain of His special mercies and by the continued dew of His grace; and our prayer is that a Church thus planted and favored may be established forever in prosperity and peace.

RULES.

I. This Church is independent in its organization and the regulation of its affairs. It controls the admission, discipline and removal of its members, according only to the rules laid down in the Scriptures. It is amenable to no other ecclesiastical body; but it will extend to other Evangelical Congregational Churches, and desires to receive from them, that fellowship, advice and assistance which the law of Christ requires.

II. The permanent officers of the Church shall be the Pastor or Pastors, and Deacons. To the Pastor pertains the office of Moderator. It shall be the duty of the Deacons to preside in the absence of the Pastor; to assist in the administration of the Lord's Supper; to distribute the charities of the Church; to aid the Pastor generally in the spiritual care of the flock; and in his absence to provide a supply for the pulpit. The number of the Deacons shall be fixed by the Church as its interests from time to time may require, and no person shall hold the office more than six years without a re-election; it being understood that the term of one incumbent shall expire annually according to the seniority of appointment.

III. There shall be appointed, at least two weeks before the annual meeting, a committee of nomination, consisting of three persons, whose duty it shall be to nominate to the Church for election, the names of four women to serve as Deaconesses, whose term of office shall continue one year. Their duty shall be to visit the sick, to bring cases of need within the Church to the knowledge of its members, to call upon new families and invite them to a home in the house of God, and their children to the Sabbath School, and in any other way to assist the Pastor and Deacons in their work.

IV. An annual meeting shall be held in January, on or before the Tuesday following the second Sabbath, at a time to be fixed by the Pastor and Deacons, at which meeting there shall be chosen, by ballot, a Deacon, four Deaconesses, a Clerk, Treasurer, Superintendents of the Sabbath Schools, and such number of brethren as shall, with the Pastor, Deacons and Clerk, constitute a Standing Committee of eleven.

V. A Special Meeting of the Church may be called at any time by the Pastor, Deacons or Clerk, by a notice at any public religious meeting, or by seasonably notifying each resident member of the Church. All business meetings shall be opened by prayer. All members of this Church of twenty-one years of age and upwards, habitually worshiping with it, and only those, shall be entitled to act or vote in any of its business matters.

VI. Persons desiring to connect themselves with this Church, either on Confession of their Faith in Christ or by letter from other Churches, shall be examined by the Standing Committee, who shall, if deemed expedient, report their names to the Church; with the concurrence of the Church such names shall be propounded before the Congregation on some succeeding Sabbath at least two weeks before their reception. The Standing Committee may, however, in exceptional cases, at their discretion, so far vary from this rule as to allow names to be propounded before the congregation one week previous to the public reception instead of two as indicated above. The question as to the admission of candidates shall be taken at a subsequent meeting of the Church; if the vote be favorable, they shall become members by publicly assenting to the Confession of Faith and adopting the Convenant, and by signing the Confession, Covenant and Rules; but those who unite by letter shall be expected to assent only to that part of the Covenant which applies to this Church, in addition to the Confession of Faith.

VII. The Lord's Supper will be administered once in two months.

VIII. Members of this Church removing from the place, are requested to leave their address with the Clerk, and are required to apply in writing for dismission within one year, or render a satisfactory reason for non-compliance; and it is the duty of the Standing Committee to write every year, in January, to all members who have been absent one year.

IX. Members of other Congregational Churches expecting to commune with this Church for one year or longer, are desired to bring letters of admission and recommendation to this Church, unless there be special reasons for delay. Such letters shall not be received without satisfactory explanation after one year from their date.

X. The expenses of all delegations of the Church to Ecclesiastical Councils shall be paid by the Treasurer from the funds of the Church. A delegate chosen to represent the Church, if unable to attend to the duty personally, may substitute some other member of the Church to act in his stead.

XI. No alteration shall be made in the Rules, the Confession of Faith or the Covenant, except by vote of two-thirds of the brethren present, at a meeting regularly called,—such alterations having been submitted in writing at a previous meeting.

DOCTRINAL STATEMENT.

In the "Form of Admission," following this statement, those truths only are mentioned which are regarded as fundamental to Christian experience. To these, and these alone, assent is required as a condition of admission to this Church.

In common, however, with the great body of Orthodox Churches, we regard Divine Revelation as teaching the following truths; and we earnestly commend them to all our members as the full standard of their doctrinal belief.

EXISTENCE AND ATTRIBUTES OF GOD.

I. There is but one God: Creator, Preserver and Moral Governor of the Universe;—infinite in power, knowledge, wisdom, justice, goodness and truth; self-existent, independent and immutable; revealed as the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost; and these three are One in essence and equal in power and glory.

Deut. vi: 4.—"Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord." 1 Cor. viii: 4.—"There is none other God but one." Gen. i: 1.—"In the beginning God created the Heaven and the Earth." Heb. iii: 4.—"He that built all things is God." John i: 3.—"All things were made by Him; and without Him was not anything made that was made." Mal. iii: 6.—"For I am the Lord, I change not." Deut. xxxii: 4.—"A God of truth and without iniquity; just and right is He." Col. ii: 3.—"In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge." John x: 30.—"I and my Father are one." Matt. xxviii: 19.—"Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptising them into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost."

SOVEREIGNTY AND PROVIDENCE OF GOD.

II. God is a Sovereign Ruler; governing all things according to the good pleasure of his will; knowing all his works from the beginning; and directing the affairs of men with a general and particular providence.

Psalms cxv: 3.—"But our God is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased." Dan. iv: 35.—"He doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?" Acts xv: 18.—"Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world." Psalms cxlvii: 8.—"Who covereth the heaven with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth, who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains." Amos iii: 6.—"Shall there be evil in a city and the Lord hath not done it?" Matt. x: 30.—"But the very hairs of your head are all numbered."

INSPIRATION AND AUTHORITY OF THE SCRIPTURES.

III. The Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God, and they are our only perfect rule of faith and practice.

2 Tim. iii: 16.—"All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness." 2 Peter i: 21.—"For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost." Psalms xix: 7.—"The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple. The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes."

FALL OF MAN AND ITS CONSEQUENCES.

IV. God originally created man in his own image; but he fell from that state by transgressing the divine command, and in consequence of this apostacy, men are by nature destitute of holiness, and at enmity with the law, character, and government of God.

Gen. i: 27.—"So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them." Gen. iii: 6.—"And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat." Romans v: 12.—"Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned." Romans viii: 7.—"Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be." Jer. xvii: 9.—"The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked; who can know it?"

THE WORK OF JESUS CHRIST.

V. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, has, by his obedience, suffering, and death, made complete atonement for sin. He is the only Redeemer of sinners; and all who are saved will be altogether indebted to the grace and mercy of God, in Jesus Christ, for their salvation.

John iii: 16.—"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." Acts iv: 12.—"Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved." Eph. ii: 8.—"For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God." Romans iii: 24.—"Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus."

OFFICE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT.

VI. The Holy Spirit, third person of the Trinity, was given to the world to be the Instructor, Sanctifier and Comforter of Men. By his help men are made to feel their lost condition, and to seek salvation through Jesus Christ.

John xiv: 16.—"And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever." John xvi: 8, 13.—"And when he is come he will reprove the world of sin, of righteousness, and of judgment. When he, the Spirit of Truth, is come, he will guide you unto all truth." Romans v: 5.—"Because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost." Romans xv: 16.—"Being sanctified by the Holy Ghost."

REGENERATION.

VII. To be born again is the imperative need of every human soul. This change is wrought by the Holy Spirit, through the agency of Divine truth, and conditioned upon individual repentance of sin, and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

John iii: 3.—"Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God." Gal. vi: 15.—"For in Christ Jesus, neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature." Jam. i: 18.—"Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth." Romans v: 5.—"Because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost, which is given unto us." Ezk. xviii: 27.—"When the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive." Acts ii: 38.—"Then Peter said unto them, repent, and be baptised, every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ, for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost."

PERSEVERANCE OF SAINTS.

VIII. Those who cordially embrace Christ, although they may fall into sin, never will be left finally to fall away and perish; but will be kept by the power of God, through faith, unto salvation.

Psalms xxxvii: 24.—"Though he fall he shall not be utterly cast down: for the Lord upholdeth him with his hand." Phil. i: 6.—"Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ." John x: 28.—"And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand." 1 Cor. i: 8.—"Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ."

THE CHRISTIAN LIFE.

IX. Watchfulness and holy meditation; a conscientious regard for public, family, and secret worship, together with the steady practice of righteousness, truth, sincerity and charity towards men; and of sobriety, chastity and temperance towards ourselves, are the indispensable duties of every Christian.

Psalms i: 2.—"But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night." Heb. x: 25.—"Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is." Mat. vi: 6.—"But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly." Matt. xxii: 39.—"Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." Gal. v: 22.—"But the fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law."

THE RESURRECTION AND FUTURE AWARDS.

X. There will be a general resurrection of the bodies, both of the just and of the unjust; when all mankind shall stand before the judgment seat of Christ, to receive the things done in the body, according to that they have done. The punishment of the wicked and the rewards of the righteous shall be everlasting.

John v: 28, 29.—"Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation." 2 Cor. v: 10.—"For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ." Matt. xxv: 34.—"Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world." Matt. xxv: 41.—"Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels." Matt. xxv: 46.—"And these shall go away unto everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal." Rev. xxii: 11.—"He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still."

THE CHURCH.

XI. Christ has a visible church in the world, into which, all who give credible evidence of true repentance and saving faith, have the right of admission.

Acts ii: 47.—"And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved." 2 Cor. vi: 17.—"Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you." Matt. x: 32.—"Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also, before my Father which is in heaven." Psalms l: 16.—"But unto the wicked God said, What hast thou to do * * * that thou shouldst take my covenant in thy mouth?"

SACRAMENTS.

XII. The Sacraments of the New Testament are Baptism and the Lord's Supper. The Sacrament of the Supper belongs to all loving and obedient disciples of the Lord Jesus, and that of Baptism to visible believers and their households.

1 Cor. xi: 23.—"The Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread: and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat; this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me." 1 Cor. xi: 25.—"After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the New Testament in my blood; this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me." Matt. xxviii: 19.—"Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost." Luke xviii: 16.—"But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the Kingdom of God." Acts xvi: 33.—"And (the jailer) was baptised, he and all his, straightway." Acts ii: 39.—"For the promise is unto you, and to your children."

FORM FOR THE ADMISSION OF MEMBERS.

[The candidates will present themselves before the pulpit, without waiting to be called, while the Minister is reading the following Invitation.]

JESUS SAITH: Come unto Me all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest; take My yoke upon you and learn of Me; for I am meek and lowly in heart, and ye shall find rest unto your souls; for My yoke is easy and My burden is light.

And the Spirit and the Bride say, Come; and let him that heareth say, Come; and let him that is athirst, Come; and whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

[The Minister will then address the candidates as follows.]

DEARLY BELOVED,—You are here before God and many witnesses, to confess the Lord Jesus Christ, and to enter into Covenant with His Church. You are moved to this act by supreme love towards God, by willingness to obey the Master's command, and by a sincere desire for the welfare of your fellow-men. We trust that you know the solemnity and the blessedness of this Confession, and we are confident that He which hath begun a good work in you, will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.

WE BELIEVE in God, the Father Almighty, the Being of absolute perfection, the Creator, Preserver and Governor of the Universe; Who so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son for its redemption.

WE BELIEVE in Jesus Christ, His Son, our Lord; Who was in the beginning with God and was God; who became man and suffered to take away the sin of the world; in Whom alone we have redemption, being justified freely through faith in His blood; Who was crucified, dead and buried; Who rose from the dead and ascended on high, and sitteth at the right hand of the Father; whence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead, giving to every one according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

WE BELIEVE in the Holy Ghost, the Comforter; through Whom alone we are renewed and sanctified and kept unto eternal life; by Whose inspiration the Scriptures are given, as our only authoritative rule of faith and practice.

Before Almighty God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, we humbly acknowledge our guiltiness; and casting ourselves upon His infinite goodness and mercy, we hope for the forgiveness of sins through our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

WE BELIEVE in one Church on Earth and in Heaven; in one Baptism; in one Communion of the body and blood of Christ; and we look for the Resurrection of the dead and the life immortal. Amen.

Do you heartily assent to this Confession of Faith?

COVENANT.

You who have now made this Confession do acknowledge the Lord Jehovah, the FATHER, the SON, and the HOLY GHOST, to be your God. To Him you devote your supreme affection; and, abiding henceforth in Jesus, you will strive, by the use of holy ordinances and established means of grace, to cultivate within you the fruits of the spirit,—Love, Joy, Peace, Long-suffering, Gentleness, Goodness, Faith, Meekness, Temperance. If these things be in you and abound, ye shall be neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

[BAPTISM will here be administered to those who have never been baptised.]

COVENANT WITH THE CHURCH.

[Those who have been received from other Churches will then rise, and the Minister will ask those who join by letter, "Do you assent to the Confession of Faith which has been read?" Each candidate answers, "I do," and the Minister will then address both classes as follows.]

Do you solemnly covenant and agree to study the peace, purity and liberty of this Church; to love and help its members as your brethren; to uphold, together with us, its public worship and ordinances; and, so far as in you lies, to maintain with us, the spirit of unity in the bonds of peace?

[The candidates will assent.]

Upon the Confession and Covenant which you have now made, we, the members of this Church,

[Here the members of the Church will rise.]

do cordially and affectionately receive you to our Communion. In the name of Christ, we welcome you to His discipleship; to a share in the blessings and promises of His Covenant; to a participation in the duties, privileges and glories of His Church. Ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the Saints, and of the household of God, and are built upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner-stone.

In token of our confidence and sympathy, and as a pledge of our brotherly kindness and love, take the HAND OF WELCOME, and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how He said:

[Here the Minister will take each new member by the hand in turn, repeating to each some appropriate saying of Christ. He will then conclude with the following Benediction,]

The very God of peace, sanctify you wholly; and I pray

God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. The Lord bless you and keep you. The Lord make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you. The Lord lift His countenance upon you and give you peace. Amen.

[When only members received by letter are to be welcomed, the Minister, having invited the Church and such new members to rise, shall read the Confession of Faith, and speak as follows.]

Fellow-disciples of our Master and partakers of the same faith with us, we rejoice that the will of God, which separates you from the Church of your former love, has cast your lot among us. Do you now solemnly covenant and agree to study the peace, purity and liberty of this Church; to love and help its members as your brethren; to join us in upholding its public worship and ordinances; and, so far as in you lies, to maintain with us the spirit of unity in the bonds of peace?

[The candidates will assent.]

Come, then, and be kindred with us in the Lord Jesus; and, by His help, we will prove this tie to be the most sacred of all bonds. In all your sorrows we desire to sympathize and share; and in all your joys, we will rejoice.

[The Minister will then give to each the HAND OF WELCOME, and conclude with the Benediction, as printed above.]
